HAIR AND SCALP NEED DAILY CARE
Beautiful Hair is Within the Reach of All

If you value the appearance of your hair you should treat your scalp as often and as well as you brush your teeth and rub into the scalp pores twice daily a Little Parisian Sage. This treatment is not a mere "hair tonic." It is bottled rushment for the hair roots and it is simply wonderful what an improvement it is for even a week will make in the appearance of anyone's hair. It never injures, is delightfully cool and pleasant to the scalp and takes out the dull, lifeless look in the hair, making it soft, fluffy, glossy and beautiful. Two or three applications remove every trace of dandruff, and daily use will prevent its return. Fred D. Pierce and leading druggists everywhere can furnish you with Parisian Sage, it costs but a trifle. Sold and guaranteed in Orleans by F. J. Kinney

SUGAR MAKERS

We have been in business nearly 30 years and never before in all that time has there been a brighter outlook for the sugar maker than there is today.

We have just returned from the meeting of the Vermont Sugar Makers Ass'n. and when we know the prices a lot of our sugar producers are getting for their product it seems a shame to let a single available tree lie idle.

We are contracting for the coming season's crop at 10c a pound. If we knew we could get the goods we could contract with a reliable party for 4000 gal. of syrup at a price as good as 12 1-2c would be for sugar.

Get into line men. If you need, any new buckets or covers, tanks, boiling rig or anything else made of galvanized iron or tin, buy it while you can get it. We are now turning out our Monarch buckets and hope there may be enough to go around but it don't look that way, we can fill all orders taken now but don't expect to have a bucket left by sugaring and at that we are much better fixed than most makers of these goods are.

The Monarch goods were the King Pins at the sugar makers' meeting, the general verdict being: "If a man is looking for the very best goods he comes back to the Monarch every time."

Let us hear from you. Address

TEST FOODS.

Many Household Staples Found to Be Adulterated.

Housewives ought to have a bit of many kinds of knowledge. The perfect housewife must not only have a thorough knowledge of the cuisine, but she must also be an excellent business woman and know how to apply business methods to her home. She must have a practical acquaintance with chemistry and biology and must have the art of making a house into a home.

Just at present the women in the home need another kind of knowledge which will prove invaluable to them at many a time. That is how to know if their food is adulterated. There are, unfortunately, frauds in every line of work, and the food frauds always seize upon such occasions as the present, when the authorities are busy elsewhere, to perpetrate the worst crimes against the community. Probably foodstuffs all over will be adulterated and the wise housewife will learn how to detect the presence of foreign elements in the provisions she buys.

Butter is one of the first to suffer. Margarine has often been used as a substitute in the past and probably will be passed off many times in the future. While margarine is perfectly wholesome, still no woman wants to pay the price of butter for the less costly margarine. A reliable test is, melt a little bit in a spoon over a gas burner. Good butter froths a great deal, but makes very little noise. Margarine, on the contrary, crackles and bursts and makes little explosive sounds. After applying this test you can refuse to buy again at the same shop if you detect the presence of margarine in the substance which you bought as butter.

The easiest and commonest food to adulterate is milk. Watered milk is almost as common as plain water, but it is so easy to discover the fraud that no housewife need be taken in by it. Pour your milk into a pail or pot. Then take a fairly stout, very bright knitting needle and plunge it into the milk. If, on removal, a large drop of the fluid clings to the end of the needle for quite a time without falling off you may feel quite sure that the milk is all right. If, on the other hand, the liquid runs right off the steel needle and forms no lasting drop the milk has certainly been watered.

RESOLUTIONS

At a meeting of Navy Grange held Dec. 31, the following resolution was adopted:

In that it has pleased the Great Master of the Universe to remove from our midst by death our beloved sister, Mrs. George Calkins,

The members of this Grange wish to place on record their appreciation of her loyalty and devotion to the Grange, and to extend to Brother George Calkins and family their heartfelt sympathy in this sad bereavement.

William R. Price,
W. D. Hetherington,
Mrs. Margaret Hetherington,
Committee.

MRS. FRANK J. FAUFAW.

On the morning of Jan. 5, at her home in Holland, Mrs. Frank J. Faufaw entered into eternal rest. She was Sarah M. Horn, daughter of Reuben and Ruhanna (Richardson) Horn and was born in Glen Sutton, Que., April 3, 1874, and was therefore less than 42 years old. On April 6, 1892, she was married at Richford to Frank J. Faufaw of that place. To them was born one son, Ray, who with the husband survive. After a few years Mr. and Mrs. Faufaw came to Holland and later moved to this village where they lived several years. Upon removing to Holland they bought a small place and Mr. Faufaw, who is a carpenter, erected a nice house, where they have taken much comfort. Mrs. Faufaw had trouble with one side for several years and a year ago this month it became necessary to undergo an operation. She went to Montreal, where sixty gall stones were removed, and a tumor of a cancerous nature, on her liver was so bad it was thought unsafe to remove. Since coming home she was very well at times and as late as last fall she went to Springfield, Mass., to visit relatives. It was while there that she learned how serious her trouble and how long she would probably live. The last two weeks, her suffering was intense. The family and friends have done everything possible to make her illness brighter for her, and she sincerely appreciated the letters, cards, plants, cut flowers, fruit, dainty food and numerous gifts she received, for scarcely a day passed that she did not receive something. She was fortunate in having her mother-in-law, Mrs. Sarepta Faufaw, with her, and Mrs. Faufaw will keep the home for her son and grandson. She was one who thoroughly enjoyed life, one who would never be old in reality and it seems very sad that she must be taken away so young in years. During all her illness no one has heard her complain, even when talking of the necessity of leaving this world. Always laughing, joking and looking on the bright side, if one seemed possible, and if not, making one of her own, she was a determination not to give up until the end. It has been a marvel to her relatives and friends to see her able to do so. She was dressed every day until the Friday preceding her death. Mrs. Faufaw will be missed, not only by her family but by all who helped her in her last days. She was a member of the Grange and Ladies' Aid society of Holland and outside her home duties did dressmaking. The funeral was held in the church at West Holland Jan. 7, Rev. Harris preaching a beautiful sermon. The wife and mother died at the coincidence that he read a hymn that was sung at the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Norman Johnson of Holland, who died several years ago. The flowers from the Grange, relatives and friends were beautiful. Mr. Faufaw and son wish to thank all who helped add to the pleasure and comfort of the deceased and all who by word or deed have helped to lighten their sorrow. They surely have the sympathy of all who know them. There are also left themselves, Mrs. Ruhanna Horn, sister, Mrs. S. D. Barrup, two brothers, G. W. Horn and Arthur Horn, all of this place, a brother, Chandler Horn of Derby, and a sister, Mrs. Loren Glad-den of Springfield, Mass. All were present at the funeral except the mother and the sister, Mrs. Gladden, who were not able to attend. Mrs. Faufaw was brought here and laid beside her father, who died three years ago. While bodily absent, Mrs. Faufaw will long live in our memory.

Brave Husband.

Jones—"Dear me! You say you often lay down the law to your wife. How do you go about it?" Bones—"Why, all you need is firmness! I usually go into my study, lock the door and do it over the transom—all you need is firmness—in the door!" Puck.

SKY PRAISES.

Not golden sky, which was the doubly blessed symbol of advancing day and of approaching rest.—George Elliot.

The starry cope of heaven.—Milton.

The sky domed above us, with its heavenly frescoes, painted by the thought of the Great Artist.—Allan Throckmorton.

Sometimes gentle, sometimes capricious, sometimes awful; never the same for two moments together; almost human in its passions, almost spiritual in its tenderness, almost divine in its infinity, its appeal to what is immortal in us is as distinct as its ministry of chastisement or of blessing to what is mortal is essential.—Ruskin.

UNCEASING MISERY

Some Barton Kidney Sufferers Get Little Rest or Comfort.

There is little sleep, little rest, little peace for many a sufferer from kidney trouble. Life is one continual round of pain. You can't rest at night when there's kidney backache. You suffer twinges and "stabs" of pain, annoying urinary disorders, lameness and nervousness. You can't be comfortable at work with darting pains and blinding dizzy spells. Neglect these ailments and serious troubles may follow. Begin using Doan's Kidney Pills at the first sign of disorder. Thousands have testified to their merit.

Proof of merit in Barton testimony.

Van B. Hitchcock, Main street, Barton, says: "I consider Doan's Kidney Pills a valuable backache and kidney medicine. I, as well as others of my family, have used this medicine for kidney complaint and lame and aching back, and it has done a world of good. I never took another medicine that brought such great relief as Doan's Kidney Pills."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Hitchcock had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Saves Boy From Grave

Mrs. Jennie Bowen of Meredith, N. H., writes this kind of letter: "My son has helped my little boy. He would have been in his grave before long."

Some symptoms of worms are: Deranged bowels, often upper and sour stomach, offensive breath, hard and full belly with occasional gripings and pains about the navel, pale face of leaden tint, eyes heavy and dull, twitching eyelids, itching of the nose, itching of the rectum, short, dry cough, grinding of the teeth, little red points sticking out on the tongue, starting during sleep, slow fever.

If you have the least suspicion that your child is troubled with a stomach worm or pinworm, put him on the road to good health by using Dr. True's Elixir, the Family Laxative and Worm Expeller. This remedy has been on the market for over 60 years. Good for adults also. At all dealers', 35c, 50c and $1.00. Advice free.

SIMPLE REMEDY FOR CATARRH

Just Breathe Hyomei Four Times a Day and Be Relieved.

If a few years ago some one had said you could treat catarrh by breathing air charged with a healing balsam, the idea would have been ridiculed and it remained for that eminent investigator, B. T. Booth, to discover in Hyomei this wonderful method of treatment.

Hyomei has performed almost miraculous results in treating catarrh and is today recognized by thousands of people as the only advertised remedy for catarrh that can be relied upon to do just what it claims. The complete outfit of Hyomei is inexpensive and consists of an inhaler, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei.

Breathe the air of Hyomei through the little inhaler druggists furnish with it a few minutes four times a day and it will help the worst case of catarrh. It soothes and heals the mucous membrane of the air passages, prevents irritation, and effects complete and lasting relief.

In Barton there are scores of well-known people who have been relieved of catarrh by Hyomei. If it does not help you F. D. Pierce will return the money you paid for Hyomei. This is the strongest evidence that can be offered as to their faith in this remedy. Sold and guaranteed in Orleans by F. J. Kinney.
